INVITATION TO ARTICLE SUBMISSION

"Annales Kinesiologiae" is a scientific interdisciplinary journal covering kinesiology in its related areas of medical, biomechanical and social sciences. This research employs knowledge and methods of inquiry into human interaction with the environment in the broadest sense of the term from the perspective of kinesiology. It combines fields and topics directed towards the study of the human organism, its movement and its response in the frame of motor effectiveness in specific environments.

"Annales Kinesiologiae" is published twice a year (June and December) and all papers are published in English. The journal has a distinguished editorial board with extensive academic qualifications, ensuring that it maintains high scientific standards with broad international coverage. A full list of editors can be found in the first pages of the Annales Kinesiologiae journal.

Manuscripts should be prepared according to guidelines set for authors. Once a manuscript has been accepted for publication it will undergo language copy-editing, typesetting, and reference validation in order to provide the highest publication quality possible.

We look forward to collaborating with you. Should you have any colleagues who may be interested in making a submission to the journal, please feel free to forward this invitation to them.

You can find all information about the journal on website www.zrs.upr.si, which also contains the instructions for publications. If you have additional questions about submitting content to Annales Kinesiologiae, please do not hesitate to contact us: annales.kinesiologiae@zrs.upr.si.
